

Chicago Police Sgt. Alan Haymaker 56 was killed Monday, February 22 at 7:33am in a vehicle accident while on his way to a burglar call in progress. We have lost a fellow brother and a great officer.

Haymaker, Alan J. Sgt., CPD, 56, loving husband of Elaine; beloved father of Melina, Amanda (Daniel) Talavera and Elyse; son of Harry (CPD) and Catherine Haymaker, nee Gilhooly; son-in-law of Velma and the late Leroy Fisher; brother of Susan (Karl) Jung, Jerome, Gary (Nadine), Paul (Mary) and Diane (Phil) Evans; brother-in-law of Roy (Cheryl) Fisher and Irene (Ronald) Vogelpohl; uncle of many nieces and nephews.

Funeral Service Friday Feb. 26 11 a.m. at Bethel Community Church, 7601 W. Foster Ave., Chicago.

Interment Maryhill Cemetery 8600 N. Milwaukee Ave. in Niles.

Visitation Thursday 3 to 9 p.m. at Bethel Community Church, 7601 W. Foster Ave., Chicago.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the Chicago Police Memorial Fund, 1407 W. Washington Blvd., Chicago, IL 60607 or World Vision, P.O. Box 9716 Federal Way, WA 98063-9716 would be appreciated.

Info., Smith-Corcoran Funeral Home, 773-736-3833 or Visit Alan's Memorial at www.smith-corcoran.com. Published in Chicago Tribune on February 24, 2010